Friends & Family Day

Entering Our

22nd Year of Community Service

Education • Technology • Community

Hosted by

The South Carolina Grand Lodge of Ancient Free and Accepted Masons

Who We Are

The South Carolina Grand Lodge of Ancient Free and Accepted Masons is a nonprofit fraternal institution dedicated to service, moral leadership, and community uplift. Guided by the principles of brotherly love, relief, and truth, our work extends far beyond the lodge room.

Our Legacy

Now entering our 22nd year, Friends & Family Day has grown from a neighborhood outreach into one of the Lowcountry's most trusted community service initiatives—bringing together families, partners, and organizations committed to positive change.

Community Impact at a Glance

- 21+ consecutive years of uninterrupted community service
- 1,000+ families and residents served annually
- Hundreds of students supported with school supplies and resources
- Strong partnerships with schools, churches, nonprofits, and civic leaders
- Friends & Family Day provides a safe, welcoming environment offering free food, youth activities, educational resources, and family services—at no cost to those we serve.

Why Partner With Friends & Family Day

- Align your organization with education, technology, and youth empowerment. Demonstrate corporate social responsibility and community investment
- Gain meaningful visibility through a trusted, high-impact initiative
- Together, we can ensure every child has access to the tools needed to learn, lead, and thrive in the digital age.

2026 Technology Equity Initiative

In today's digital world, education requires more than preparation—it requires access.

For 2026, Friends & Family Day is expanding its mission to directly address the digital divide affecting underserved students throughout the Lowcountry.

2026 Goals

- 250 Tablets for elementary and middle school students
- 250 Laptops for high school students
- Support for homework access, digital literacy, and workforce readiness
- This initiative is not a giveaway—it is an investment in future leaders.
